Course Description

An applied liberal arts course designed as a capstone which stimulates students to integrate the knowledge and skills of their respective disciplines with their deepest convictions and the living of their whole lives.

Course Textbook

A Bible: Seek a modern translation from the original languages as opposed to a translation of a translation.

Course Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Describe themselves as unique individuals.
2. Compare their personal values and convictions with the ideals of the “American Dream.”
3. Analyze all facets of their lives at home, work, and in the community in terms of vocation.
4. Integrate their deepest convictions with the fulfillment of their vocations.
5. Evaluate the meaning of their lives in terms of service to others instead of the accumulation of wealth and possessions.

Credits

Upon completion of this course, the students will earn three (3) hours of college credit.

Course Structure

The course is divided into eight units. The purpose of the course unit is to create an integrative body of knowledge. Each course unit contains the following activities designed to enhance your understanding of the subject matter.

1. The Unit Lesson highlights, summarizes, and alerts students to areas of importance within selected readings.
2. The Unit Learning Objectives will help students identify how learning will be demonstrated, supported and evaluated.
3. Key Terms are provided to direct attention to important subject content.
4. The Required and Supplemental Reading Assignments may include textbook readings, supplemental books, professional journals, and Internet sites.
5. Information and specifications regarding Discussion Board questions are provided in the Course Policies section.
6. Students are required to take Unit Assessments at the completion of each unit. These questions reflect all of the material covered in each unit.
Unit Assignments

Reflective Writing Assignment 1: “Who Am I?”

Who are you? Who and what has shaped you to be the person you are? What makes you unique? No one else is exactly like you, so what is it that makes you different? What sets you apart? What is your purpose in life? Be specific in describing yourself.

Your paper should be 500 words and double-spaced.

Reflective Writing Assignment 2: "What Gives Your Life Meaning?"

How do you feel needed? What makes you think your life matters? How do you know you count?

Your paper should be 500 words and double-spaced.

Reflective Writing Assignment 3: "My Vocation"

What are your gifts and abilities? What are you most interested in and passionate about? “Where does your deep gladness meet the world’s deep hunger?” To what are you being “called?” Does that calling fit with what you are pursuing with your education?

Your paper should be 500 words and double-spaced.

Reflective Writing Assignment 4: “Vocational Comparison?”

Compare and contrast the vocation paper you wrote for this course with the one you wrote for your orientation to this college. Have your interests, passions, talents, and abilities changed? How has your understanding of vocation and of your place in the world changed? Do you hear different calls now than you did the first time you wrote this paper?

If you did take the orientation course, examine your beliefs when you started your program at this college. Have your interests, passions, talents, and abilities changed? How has your understanding of vocation and of your place in the world changed? Do you hear different calls now than you did the first time you started your higher education?

Your paper should be 500 words and double-spaced.

Submitting Course Papers/Projects

Once you have completed your papers/projects, submit your completed papers/projects by uploading through the Assignment tab in each unit. Do not e-mail your paper directly to your professor. By using the Assignment tab, your record will automatically be updated to indicate you have submitted your papers/projects and the assignment will be provided to your professor for grading. Instructions for submitting your assignment can be found under the Assignment tab in each unit.

APA Guidelines

Waldorf College requires that students use the APA style for papers and projects. Therefore, the APA rules for formatting, quoting, paraphrasing, citing, and listing of sources are to be followed. Information about using APA style can be found in APA Style Help in the Course Menu. This area provides links to internet sites, tutorials, and guides that provide comprehensive information on APA formatting, including examples and sample papers.

Communication Forums

These are non-graded discussion forums that allow you to communicate with your professor and other students. Participation in these discussion forums is encouraged, but not required. You can access these forums with the buttons in the Course Menu. Instructions for subscribing/unsubscribing to these forums are provided below.

Click here for instructions on how to subscribe/unsubscribe and post to the Communication Forums.
Ask the Professor

This communication forum provides you with an opportunity to ask your professor general or course content questions. Questions may focus on Blackboard locations of online course components, textbook or course content elaboration, additional guidance on assessment requirements, or general advice from other students.

Questions that are specific in nature, such as inquiries regarding assessment/assignment grades or personal accommodation requests, are NOT to be posted on this forum. If you have questions, comments, or concerns of a non-public nature, please feel free to email your professor. Responses to your post will be addressed or emailed by the professor within 48 hours.

Before posting, please ensure that you have read all relevant course documentation, including the syllabus, assessment/assignment instructions, faculty feedback, and other important information.

Student Break Room

This communication forum allows for casual conversation with your classmates. Communication on this forum should always maintain a standard of appropriateness and respect for your fellow classmates. This forum should NOT be used to share assessment answers.

Final Exam Guidelines

Proctored Final Exams are taken online. Final Exams are to be administered to students by an approved proctor on a date that is mutually convenient. The student is responsible for selecting a qualified proctor that must be approved by the College. To view a list of acceptable proctor qualifications, see the Proctor Agreement form. The Proctor Agreement form is located in the Online Forms, Courses page of the myWaldorf Student Portal.

To request your proctored final exam and/or review the complete Examination Proctor Policy and Proctor Agreement, submit the Request, go to the Request to take Final Exam Online (Online Exam) form. The Request to take Final Exam Online (Online Exam) form is located in the Online Forms, Courses page of the myWaldorf Student Portal.

Reminder: The Final Exam is due by Tuesday, 11:59 p.m. (Central Time) of Unit VIII. Any student who does not take the Final Exam by the end of the term will automatically fail the entire course.
